Which wine is produced from raisins?

Answer: Raisin wine (straw wine) is a wine made from grapes that have been dried to concentrate sugar. Typical straw wine is sweet, desert, full-bodied white wine with little acid (depending of sort of wine) and alcohol content about 14-17%.

The best-known brands of straw wine:

- Passito (Italy). Classical white straw wine the Moscato Passito di Pantelleria and red dry wine Amarone della Valpolicella;
- Vino de pasas (Spain). Bodegas Oliveros;
- Vin de Paille (France);
- Strohwein (Germany);
