

Answer on Question #54242 – Chemistry – Organic Chemistry

Question:

Why does hydroboration appear as anti-markovnikov addition?

Answer:

Since Hydrogen has higher electronegativity than Boron it bears a partial negative charge. Therefore hydrogen from BH_3 forms bond with the carbon atom having the lowest negative charge, namely, with that which has less number of hydrogen:

