

#83526 Chemistry, Other

What element of the fire triangle is removed when fireman protect buildings near a large fire by spraying them with water?

Answer:

When fireman protect buildings near a large fire by spraying them with water, he removes heat as an element of the fire triangle.

Answer provided by www.AssignmentExpert.com