

Explain and show graphically how this market would be affected if there is an increase in the number of dairy farmers that produce hormone-free milk at the same time in South African consumers chose to be more healthy.

ANSWER:

Situation described above is simply an increase in supply of hormone-free milk and simultaneous increase in demand for it. Consequently, an equilibrium price (E_2) will be higher than initial one (E_1).

