

Answer on Question #38926 - Economics - Macroeconomics

If owner of securities companies located in the country A, sends them over the years to his brother that lives in country B, the change of the value of GDP, GNP, ND of A country will not change the value and income of such type of securities, as they are counted as income on securities of private enterprise, which doesn't depend on the values of GDP, GNP, ND of the country A.