

Answer on Question #47387, Economics, Microeconomics

The numbers used in the chart are just indicative. They are only used to give an idea.

As both milk and meat are produced by cows, the dairy to farmers for slaughtering cows will increase the supply of meat, that's why the surplus of meat will also appear, after which the price for meat will decrease.

