

There is a context diagram of the process of the financial security company management improvement.

In this case, the context diagram input are the financial statements, including balance sheet and income statement, the mechanism for implementation is a financial manager and his workstation, control is making by using valuation techniques of financial security, taxonomic analysis and forecasting tools.