

Explain and show graphically how this market would be affected if there is an increase in number of dairy farmers that produce hormone – free and at the time South African chose to be more healthy

Increasing of quantity of farmers actually means increasing of suppliers that will lead to changing in Aggregate Supply

