

Explain and show graphically how market would be affected if there is an increase in the number of dairy farmers that produce hormone-free milk and at the same time South African consumers chose to be more healthy

Increasing the quantity of farmers actually means increasing the number of suppliers that will lead to a change in Aggregate Supply

If also the quantity of consumers increases, then it also increases aggregate demand

