Who was the inventor of the spreadsheet?

Solution

Daniel Singer "Dan" Bricklin (born 16 July 1951), often referred to as "The Father of the Spreadsheet", is the American co-creator, with Bob Frankston, of the VisiCalc spreadsheet program (VisiCalc was the first electronic spreadsheet on a microcomputer). He also founded Software Garden, Inc., where he is currently its president, and Trellic Corporation, which is currently owned by Web.com.

Answer: Daniel Bricklin
