

At a miniature golf course, a water hazard blocks the direct shot from the tee at $T(0,0)$ to the cup at $C(-1,7)$. If you hit the ball so it bounces off an angled wall at $B(3,4)$, it will do into the cup. The coordinate system is measured in feet. Draw a diagram of the situation.

