

Angle $ABC = 90$ Degree, draw the bisector

An angle bisector divides the angle into two angles with equal measures. As $\angle ABC = \frac{\pi}{2} = 90^\circ$, then its bisector will divide $\angle ABC$ into two angles of measure $\frac{\pi}{4} = 45^\circ$. Here is the illustration:

