

Answer on Question#38621 – Math - Other

We have two context-free languages L_1 and L_2 . By a property of recursively enumerable language that all regular, context-free, context-sensitive and recursive languages are recursively enumerable, we can see that the right answer is b).