

Explain:

- When we rub a glass rod on the wool, the rod gives electrons to the wool. The rod becomes positively charged.
- When we rub an ebonite rod on the wool, the rod takes electrons from the wool. The rod becomes negatively charged.

