

Answer on Question #46730, Physics, Other

Task:

The physical principle which accounts for the travelling of sound through longer distances at night is called

- a) Waves
- b) Polarization
- c) Diffraction
- d) refraction

Answer: d)

The physical principle which accounts for the travelling of sound through longer distances at night is called refraction.