

Answer on Question #48160, Physics, Mechanics - Kinematics - Dynamics

How to find resultant force when 3 forces act on a body

Force is a vector. Therefore, when three forces act on a body the resultant force will be the vector sum of three vectors. The net force is depend on the forces directions.

