Answer on question #54958, Physics / Astronomy — Astrophysics

Question   Two stars are recorded as having a magnitude difference of 5. What is the ratio of their brightnesses?

Solution   Difference in brightness can be found as

$$F_2/F_1 \approx 2.512^{\Delta m} = 2.512^5 \approx 100$$