

Answer on Question #65056-Physics-Other

How might the amount of work change for a given mass if the displacement were greater?

Answer

The amount of work increased.

The formula for work is

$$W = Fd,$$

where F is force and d is displacement.

Thus,

$$W \sim d.$$

Answer provided by <https://www.AssignmentExpert.com>